

VIA PANAMA

SONG

Words & Music by

LAWRENCE FABER

PRICE 50 CENTS

— Published by —
C. L. SMITH Co
101 MT. VERNON ST.
BOSTON, MASS.

no - tion, That it would please my soul to take A si - tion, That ev' - ry bo - dy will be there 'S the rum - pus By stop - ping Eu - rope's East - ern trade, So wor - ried Lest I be late. So par - don please, If trip up - on the o - cean. So if you've a - ny gen' - ral sup - po - si - tion. Some will tra - vel Chris - to - pher Co - lum - bus, — But that's an - o - ther

 I seem kind of hur - ried. If you have a - ny bus - i - ness Just call on my at - tor - ney For o - ver - land A - cross this might - y na - tion. Take sto - ry for The Turks have now re - treat - ed. And more bo - quets Ex - press - ing ap - pro - ba - tion, Just now to Cal - i - for - nia I Am go - ing on a journ - ey.

legato

 it from me the way to go Is by cir - cum - nav - i - ga - tion.
 Un - cle Sam's new East - ern - route At last has been com - plet - ed.
 send them on down to the ship And they'll reach their des - ti - na - tion.

staccato

f p f
sva.....

p. f Moderato
Vi - a Pa - na - ma - na - ma - na - ma,
p. f
sva

Vi - a Pa - na - ma, Past the Cape of Yu - ca - tan, and Ni - ca - ra - gu - a.

cresc.

Through the shin - ing Car - ib - be - an Sea Through the Big Ca -

cresc.

f

nal. That's the swag - ger way, you know; Vi - a

f

Pa - na - ma, Vi - a Pa - na - ma, Quite the dan - dy way to go. Vi - a Pa - na - Pa - na - Pa - na - Pa - na - ma.